ROY LAW CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION TO OFFICE

RECORD OF SERVICE MAKES WIDE APPEAL FOR POPULAR TAX COLLECTOR

Roy Law, tax collector for Milam County, is a candidate for re-election to that office, subject to the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932 and submits to the people of Milam County his record of service in office.

Based upon comparison Mr. Law's record of service has not only brought to the office of Tax Collector a measure of administrative efficiency that keeps faith with the finest traditions of office holding but has brought him into prominence over the state where his services have been utilized in the position of president of the State Tax Collector's Association. This honor to Mr. Law came as a result of observation made of his record of service and to the untiring efforts he directs to his work. One of the youngest men to serve in that capacity, his many friends appreciate this honor and take it as an indication to justify in large measure the confidence first placed in him when they elected him to the office of Tax Collector in Milam County.

It is not, however, upon his record of service to the state association that the people of Milam county look when they think of entrusting duties so important as these, but to the unqualified integrity of his own official acts while serving the people of this county. It can be said of Mr. Law that when he pledged his best efforts to the people of the county in this office, he kept faith with them and in offering for re-election, his friends throughout the county are praising his services.

In order to appreciate the volume of business transacted in the office of Tax Collector one must visit this office and go over the detail of it. When its multiplicity of duties are understood, it is more easy to understand that only efficiency may count in making a record such as Mr. Law has made. His friends point out for him that at no time has his accounts been at variance with those of the

COMMISSIONER BUTTS ASKS FOR RE-ELECTION

RECORD OF SERVICE OFFERED AS PROOF OF FAITH KEPT WITH PEOPLE HERE

N. H. Butts, county commissioner for Precinct No. 2 of Milam county, is a candidate for re-election to that office subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held on July 23, 1932.

Mr. Butts authorizes The Herald to place his name in the proper announcement column and in making his decision to offer for re-election he will find that he has pleased a large and loyal friendship in this precinct. The record he has made in this office is proof of the faith he has kept with the people who have elected him and in offering for re-election Mr. Butts considers that this is his greatest recommendation because it has always been his policy to serve. His friends believe his record one of the best in Texas and they will be interested in his announcement for re-election and will do all within their power for his re-nomination.

During his terms in office Mr.

Mr. Cross is a Shriner and has attended a number of grand meetings of Masonic fraternity.

SHERIFF L. L. BLAYLOCK CANDIDATE RE-ELECTION

POPULAR PEACE OFFICER AND WIDELY KNOWN SHERIFF SUBMITS CANDIDACY

Leonard L. Blaylock, sheriff of Milam county, is a candidate for re-election to that office, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932.

The announcement of his candidacy for re-election will be received with favor and interest by the people of Milam County who know the quality and character of service he has rendered in this office and his friends will have his grateful appreciation for anything they may do to secure his nomination to this office for which he is qualified by training and experience to fill as few peace officers may serve.

Sheriff Blaylock throughout his official career has subscribed with unflinching fidelity to the highest traditions that office implies and his success is more than a local appreciation. He is known far beyond the borders of Milam county for his performance in office and his success has come as a result of his training and natural adaptation as a peace officer. In making arrests and enforcing the law he knows in intimate detail all necessary requirements in securing evidence and his keen detective ability stamps him a master at man hunting and secures for the state at all times a consistent record of crime abatement.

Friends of sheriff Blaylock advance the estimation that today no peace

ROCKDALE STORE BREAK CLEARED AFTER MONTHS

SHERIFF BLAYLOCK ENDS MAN HUNT WITH ARREST OF THREE NEGROES

A seven months man hunt by Sheriff Leonard Blaylock has ended and three negroes are facing felony charges growing out of robbery of Scarbrough & Hicks store in Rockdale on the night of July 18, 1931 when night watchman Charlie Landers narrowly escaped death.

The successful termination of the case is a fine piece of detective work for Sheriff Blaylock who always gets his man.

The negroes, all residents of Temple, are Hubert, alias Heck Robertson, Mangus and Gus Walker. The brothers have been freed temporarily on a bond of $3000 while Robertson is in the Milam county jail. Charges of burglary and assault with intent to murder have been filed and the next grand jury will return the bills.

Robertson, it was said has made a statement detailing the robbery and telling of the pistol duel in the street for Rockdale. Night watchman Landers peering into the store when the negroes were sacking goods was fired upon through the glass window, the bullet passing through his hat. The negroes ran from the store and shots were exchanged between them and the night watchman.

In the store following the attempted robbery was found a large cotton sack filled with dry goods said to be valued at about $1600 abandoned when the negroes fled.

Heck Robertson sustained a severe cut on the right knee and this mishap aided the sheriff in finding him, a Temple negro doctor having been called to treat the patient.

According to Sheriff Blaylock the men all have criminal records. Arrests were made two weeks ago but was kept secret while additional details of the robbery were being cleared up by the sheriff. Robertson was arrested in Taylor and the Walker brothers were arrested in Temple.

Haste Being Made To Assist Farmers to Secure Financing Of Their 1932 Crops

Machinery was set up Wednesday to make available Federal Crop loans to Milam County farmers at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. A committee of four was authorized to solicit funds to pay for two months the committee required to administer the loan benefits.

County Agent George Banzhaf has secured the services of the following men to serve: R. P. Lehman, Buckholts; J. H. Thomas, Gause; Conn R. Isaacs, Rockdale.

All possible haste is being made so as to take advantage of the loans. It is pointed out that this money should not be applied for if a farmer is able to secure finances otherwise and the matter of security was stressed and in a talk to the meeting T. S. Henderson urged that farmers realize that this is a business problem and that each one who secures a loan must do so with a knowledge in advance that repayment should be made when the loan falls due on November 1, 1932.

President Giles L. Avriett of the club was authorized to name the committee.

Secretary Cobb has been asked to assist and applications will be received at his office.

The meeting was held after the following story was put into type for publication.

Federal government loans to farmers in Milam county for raising the 1932 crops will be available, it was said by George Banzhaf, county agent who has been delegated by the government to form a central committee of three.

The committee is to be composed of a banker, farmer and business man, will pass upon and approve loans. Mr. Banzhaf has almost completed his organization but was having difficulty in securing a banker for the place as bankers have felt they could not readily afford to give the time required. There is no salary provided for this work but it was believed a small amount could be arranged. The work would require about 60 days.

The loans will bear interest at five and a half per cent. The limit is $400 for an individual farmer and farmers with tenants may borrow up to $1600. The loans are apportioned on the basis of $3 per acre up to a limit of $400. For example a farmer who tills 100 acres of land may secure $300.

Loans will be eligible for the following purposes: for feed, for seed, for gas and oil to tractor farmers, for fertilizer and some latitude will be granted for other necessities but no debts can be paid with the money. The usual government penalty attaches for making false statements to secure loans.

The government will require crop mortgages to secure the loans. Those who do not necessarily need the loans should not apply. The Congress has made available from fifty to two hundred million dollars to finance the crop.

Notes will be payable November 30, 1932.

THE HOMES IN THE COUNTRY AND IN THE CITIES & TOWNS

By J. K. FREEMAN

The American people have the Federal Government, the State Government, the County Government, and the City Government. This is not all. There is the Family Government, the home.

The home—the family government, is the foundation and support of all the other governments, and if it is undermined or destroyed, all the other governments will fall.

The homes in the countries and in the cities and towns are threatened. The farmers are living on vegetables and other farm products and wear old clothes; but there is the interest and taxes over which they have no control. Interest is constant. It works every day in the year, including Sundays and holidays. Taxes are as unflinching as the seasons, and mount higher and higher every year; and the farms no longer produce enough to pay these two burdens. Interest and taxes are now delinquent on at least one-fourth of the homes in the country and in the cities and towns, and two years taxes due next year with penalties added. The homes will then be lost, as every business man and woman knows. What will the end be? What will the home owners do and where will they go? Who

Judge Watson has made one of the most impressive records in all the judiciary of Texas and based upon that record his announcement will be received with popular approval by the people of the county he has served through successive terms in this office. The District Court at Cameron is one of the strong links in the judicial chain of Texas, made so in large measure by the distinguished service rendered by Judge Watson. In all sections of Texas the 20th Judicial District is regarded as a credit to the court system and its records sustain the appreciation in which it is held by the people.

Washington's Prayer For America Recited At Catholic Churches

"Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, and for their fellow citizens of the United States at large. And, finally, that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind, which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without a humble imitation of whose example in these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The above prayer was said in all Catholic churches at services on the Sunday preceding February 22. All of the church bells were tolled 200 times commemorating Washington's bi-centennial celebration.

JUDGE ED GUNN SUBMITS CANDIDACY TO PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTY

In this issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of Judge Ed Gunn, of Rockdale, for the office of Criminal District Attorney of Milam County, subject to the action of the July Democratic primary.

Judge Gunn is a well-known attorney, now holding the office of City Attorney of Rockdale, and previous to his election to that position he served several terms as Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 4, which during his administration was the largest Justice Court in Milam County, his experience being wide and varied in the administration of the law. He has made a close study of the law and of its application, and while Justice of the Peace, was often complimented by the higher courts of Milam County for his thorough methods and complete records in the administration of his office.

Judge Gunn was admitted to the bar in 1920, and has been in the active practice of the law since that date, as well as conducting the duties of the offices to which he has been elected, and is known as an able and forceful speaker—one who can present his case to a court or jury in a clear and concise manner. It has always been his belief and practice that the public is entitled to and should have the best service possible at the hands of its officials.

The office of Criminal District Attorney, as it exists today, includes all the duties formerly placed upon both County and District Attorneys, it being now the duty of such office to represent the State in all Justice Courts, County Court and District Court, as well as being legal advisor for the County, and the Judge believes that if elected to the office he can render this service in an efficient and satisfactory way.

Judge Gunn is one of Rockdale's best and most highly esteemed citizens, and has a host of friends all over the county who will learn of his announcement for this office with interest, and who will take a great degree of pleasure in lending him their active support, believing that he is the logical man to succeed Hon. Jack Lewis, who retires from the office with such a fine record.

MASONS GIVE PROGRAM EULOGIZING WASHINGTON

FIRST PRESIDENT'S TWO HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

An interested audience greeted the speakers at the Masonic Hall Monday evening, February 22, gathered to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birthday, composed of Masons, their wives, families and friends; carrying out a nation wide observance that is being sponsored by the George Washington Bi-centennial commission, which is the greatest of all celebrations.

District Deputy J. W. Haygood, presided. The program opened by singing "America" with Miss Ella Bess Haygood at the piano. One of the interesting features of the evening was the playlet given by four Boy Scouts of Troop 53, that is sponsored by the Masonic Lodge, J. W. Haygood as Scoutmaster. The Scouts to take part were John Martin, Life Scout; John S. Burns, Billie Gillis and John Haygood, Jr., Eagle Scouts.

Hon. E. A. Camp of Rockdale, was introduced and spoke on the "Early training of George Washington, giving events in the life of the first President through the Revolutionary War to his death. The speaker made an appeal to the Masons to check up on their lives and to stand for the ideals as followed by the "Father of Our Country," and as taught by Masonry.

This splendid address was followed by Judge Graham Gillis who traversed the life of George Washington from birth, and said, "Although born of aristocratic parents early in life mixed and mingled with people who lived by earning their livelihood." He was talented for surveying and in early manhood mastered the trade. The speaker gave an interesting account of Washington's ancestry, education, religious, political and social standing, stressing his life as a soldier; loyalty to the Masonic Lodge, and his faith in God. Early in life he became a Mason and attended upon its meetings regularly up to the time of his death.

September 18, 1932 will mark the 139th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the United States capitol building in Washington, D. C., by President George Washington, who attended dressed in the symbolic regalia of the Order of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, wearing the Masonic apron made for him by the wife of his friend, General Lafayette. The first president laid the corner stone at the Southeast corner of the impressive structure which became the federal capitol in the year 1793. The life of George Washington has helped to build of the United States the greatest nation known to mankind, and his name will ever be revered by all nations and peoples of the earth.

Among the out of town visitors were Hon. and Mrs. E. A. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cook, Miss Essie McCall and Emory Camp of Rockdale.

Joe Moore Will Join New York Giants At California Camp

Joe Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Gause, was in Cameron last week on a visit with friends and stated that he was leaving this week for California where he will join the New York Giants this summer, and many friends will watch the career of their Milam county friend this season, it being the first season with this team.

Broad Hint

A business man who has just become engaged to be married is a good hearted fellow and popular with his staff; his only drawback from their point of view being that he has no idea of time dictating letters just as everybody is packing up to go home.

As a wedding present they bought him a clock.

It was a fine clock, but it had one defect. It had no hands. In thanking them for the gift, he called attention to this fact.

"Oh," said the man who was making the presentation, "you never look at the time, so we got the jeweler to remove them. They were gold, and he took $5 off the price."

IFI

The small boy, aged six, was making a tiny wreath.

"What is it for?" inquired his mother.

"You know you said you heard a mouse in the pantry?"

"Yes."

"And you know you said you thought of buying a trap?"

"Yes."

"Well, if you buy a trap, and if you catch the mouse, and if they drown the mouse after it is caught, and if the mouse is buried, and if we give it a nice funeral, we shall need a wreath, shan't we?"

Wise Reader Will Not

Spoil Joy in New Book

One should read a book in the way he goes through a strange town in his car, Charles E. Tracewell writes, in the Washington Star. He does not stop the vehicle at the court house, and launch forth into a public denunciation of the architect who created the structure.

He does not assemble a gathering of the natives in the square and proceed to tell them that the traffic regulations of their one-horse town are vile, their streets badly in need of repair and their mayor evidently a sap of the first water.

No, he does nothing of the kind. He may see all these things and he may want to be so assertive, but the chances are exactly 100 to nothing that he will merely keep his eyes and ears wide open, be interested in everything he sees and hears and go on about his business, that of getting out of town to the next one.

Reading a new book is somewhat similar. A book is a journey, which, once taken, can never be taken again in its exhilarating newness, its pristine colors, its excitement, its vividness, its commonplace drama.

No matter how fine a book may be, or how much one may enjoy its second reading, or its third or fourth reading, there can never be but one first time with it, and, this being true, one is a fool to spoil it by talking, or snoring, or fuming, in his own behalf.

Native Irish Costumes

Before Queen Elizabeth

Writing of the native costume of Ireland in the early days, "Costume Throughout the Ages" says: "Since Elizabethan days the dress of the Irish has had little to distinguish it from that worn in England, but before the time of that queen who, like Henry III, made many laws pertaining to the clothing of her subjects, Irishmen wore kilts similar to those of the Scotchman, accompanied by leggings laced in by string tipped with bronze, shoes of brown leather, and a pleated linen shirt. Over all was a sleeveless loose cloak that was long and made of bright-colored wool. Some wore a fitted coat, much like the present-day frock coat with tight sleeves, no collar, and a broad girdle at the waist. . . . The women wore a linen undergarment and over this long gowns of the same material, dyed saffron, or a costly fabric imported from the continent. Their long capes had hoods attached. In jewelry, they wore bracelets, pins, brooches, rings, and torques about their necks. Today, modern Continental dress is found in all parts of Ireland, all traces of the old dress having disappeared."

Tribe of Smiling People

The Samoans are a happy race. They are smiling all the time except when they are laughing and it takes very little to make them laugh. A large group of native stevedores toiling under the torrid sun were thrown into convulsions by the sight of a tractor which they were taking from the hold. They concluded it was some new kind of an automobile with a single seat. The Samoan has little or nothing to worry him and hence his jovial disposition. His food grows all about him and his clothing demands are quite limited. A clean garment of bright colors and some cheap jewelry make a well-dressed woman and the young children wear no clothes at all. There are many short and sudden showers, but as a rule the climate is warm and sunny and the temperament of the people seems to be the same.

Not by Bread Alone

Man cannot live by bread alone. He hungers and thirsts after knowledge. He pushes the boundaries of his mind's dominion to the frontiers of the cosmos. The distances between the stars exist in his mental measurements. Can one imagine physical air waves accidentally falling together into Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," or physical type fortuitously arranging itself into Shelley's "Ode to the West Wind," or stones carving themselves and falling together into the cathedral of Amiens? There is a plus quality in such things that overpasses all materialistic needs and that materialism never can explain.—Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Divisions of Orient

Japan, China and the other countries on or near the eastern coast of Asia comprise the geographical region known as the Far East. "The Orient" is a more general term and includes all countries in Asia east of the Mediterranean. "Near East" is applied to Turkey in Europe, Asia Minor, Armenia, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Persia, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Arabia and Egypt. Thus it will be seen that the Near East and the Far East in a general way consist of divisions of the Orient.

"For the Use of the House"

Three-year-old Billy's mother, being particular that he should not annoy the neighbors, would not permit him to go into their house unless on special invitation. So Billy was especially delighted when he was permitted to spend the whole morning with the ten-year-old boy next door, who was very fascinating to him in a thoroughly "grown-up" way. When he got ready to go home, he summoned all his manners. "Thank you for this house," he said, gratefully.

"MELVIN TRAYLOR OF MALONE" SO HE IS REMEMBERED BY "US BOYS" BACK IN LITTLE SUN BAKED TEXAS TOWN

Malone, Texas, Feb. 22.—The people of this little town, who formed the first "Melvin Traylor for President Club" in the United States, still consider the Chicago banker as "one of us boys and a square shooter in every way." Farmers and business men alike are unanimous in their praise and esteem for their former townsman who has risen from cashier of their little bank to the presidency of one of the nation's largest financial institutions.

Pioneers who created this small black land, cotton area town thirty odd years ago vividly recollect the year more than a quarter of a century ago when Mel Traylor was cashier of the year-old bank of Malone and declared that the voting populace unanimously wants Traylor for president.

August Wagner, a farmer, put into words the thought of many of the citizens:

"You bet I remember Melvin Traylor and I want to do anything and everything I can to help elect him President. I used to bank with Mel when he was here, and he sure is a square shooter. They tell me that he is now a big banker in Chicago, but when he comes back to Malone he remembers every one of us by our first names and is just another one of us boys."

Traylor's banking hours while in Malone are in sharp contrast to the customary hours of the present day, according to L. F. C. Schmidt, a farmer.

"Melvin was always tending to his business and he would let us farmers in the bank late at night or early in the morning to transact our cotton business, so we could get back to the field by sun up and not lose any time from work," he explained.

"Now, I never had no schoolin' except dey taught me some Bible back in Germany," Schmidt continued, "But there I learnt that I shouldn't do nothing to you that I don't want you to do to me, and dat if I owe you a dollar I am supposed to, and I am going to, pay you dat dollar. Now dat is de way dat boy Melvin Traylor was. What we want is a President of this country dat will be like dat boy Traylor was as cashier of our little bank, be fair and good to every body and try to help us farmers and not just himself."

S. Q. Pierce, a grocer who was cotton planted when Mel Traylor was in Malone, tells of an incident which, he says, characterizes "Traylor's keen observation which marked his business transactions here and has helped him go on up." Pierce relates that Traylor, having known him but a few months, identified him at a distant bank by simply stating that he was minus a thumb on his right hand. It worked and Pierce's check was cashed. It was the only time Pierce was ever identified in that fashion.

"And you know, Mel never forgot that identification he gave me, for the last time he was here, he was laughing over it," Pierce said. "It would be a wonderful thing for this nation, and especially for us country fellows, if Mel Traylor is our next President. He is a real man in every way."

Traylor's aggressiveness in early life is related by Mrs. Werley, post-mistress at Malone. Hill County farm homes of the days when Mel Traylor was there, she said, usually had but one source of heat, that of a fireplace centrally located. Traylor wanted to rent a room with heat in it, so he could read and study at night. Not finding such, he fixed himself a bed in the back of the bank where he could not only read and study but could save room rent, an important item for his salary as cashier was only $75 a month.

There were not many forms of entertainment in the small town that was just being founded, she said, except church activities. "But Melvin always was a leader and a good mixer, and soon he was directing the young folks of the town in doing various things at the church for diversion and entertainment."

An instance in which Traylor, as cashier of the Malone Bank, turned away accounts with the advice that money should stay at home, is told by Jim Rankin of the Bynum postoffice.

"Bynum is not far from Malone," he relates, "and the people of Bynum soon got to know and like the young fellow that was cashier of the Malone Bank, they liked the straight forward way he did business. I was in Malone on business one day, and, knowing and admiring Traylor, I went to him to open up an account in his bank. He didn't seem to want to take the account and told me that my money belonged at home. He told several Bynum people the same thing, and naturally the result was that they liked him all the more. He explained to us that it would be best all the way around for the money to stay at home, where it could help those who earned it. Now that characterized his business in all ways. I sure want to help elect him President."

Traylor boarded with E. L. Tacker, grocer, for a short time after his arrival in Malone, "but we didn't get to see very much of Melvin for he worked so doggone hard and long," Tacker says.

"But he always had time to help us do what was best and never forgot anybody, and for that reason he was liked. They haven't forgotten him here, not by any means, and this town is unanimously for him."

M. M. (Hy) Traylor, Melvin's brother, is now vice-president and cashier of the Malone State Bank, which several years ago took over the Malone Bank in which Melvin worked. He is very philosophical about the boom to place his brother in the White House.

"It's mighty nice to have people think he is good enough to be President, even though he may not be elected. I had a letter from brother M. A. a day or so ago, but he said nothing at all about the people urging him as the Democratic Presidential nominee. He only wrote about some business and some of his old friends around here."

Thorndale Attorney Urged To Run For District Attorney

Friends of our local attorney and enterprising citizen, Hon. O. D. Graham, are urging him to consider making the race for District Attorney of Milam county to succeed Jack Lewis, who has made a public statement that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself for this office. Mr. Graham is well qualified to fill the office and is quite well and favorably known over Milam county, having practiced law here for many years and is a prominent member of the Milam County Bar Association, having gained prominence as a very able attorney, and enjoys a very lucrative practice. Mr. Graham has the matter under consideration and will probably make a decision on the matter in a short while.—Thorndale Champion.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter Is Buried In Belton

Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Mary Carpenter who died at her home on South Main Street, Belton, Friday morning, February 19 at four o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Carpenter was born September 14, 1847 in the state of Tennessee and came to Texas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Lee, pioneers, and settled in Bell county in 1862. Mrs. Carpenter had made her home in Bell county ever since. She was the mother of Mrs. M. M. Johnson and had spent months at a time visiting in her home. She had been a devoted Christian and member of the Methodist church since early girlhood and by her sweet Christian graces had drawn around her a large circle of friends who regret her passing.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Stewart, pastor of the Methodist church in Belton. Burial was made in the South Belton cemetery, by the side of her late husband who died about 23 years ago.

Deceased is survived by five daughters and four sons: Mrs. M. M. Johnson of Cameron, Mrs. Annie Alsup of Dallas, Mrs. W. M. Ray and Mrs. H. S. Northrup of Houston, Mrs. Alma Campbell and Mrs. J. E. Mitchell of Belton, Ben and Harvey Carpenter of Houston, Joe and Tom Carpenter of Belton; and one brother, Brown F. Lee of San Angelo, all of whom were present at the funeral excepting Mrs. Northrup, who was prevented from attending on account of illness.

George T. Moore, student in State University, spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tiff Moore.

NOT your
LIGHTING BILL

BUT.....
your ELECTRIC SERVICE BILL

If we itemized your electric bill you would then see that lighting is really only a small part. So accustomed have we become to the other electric services that we sometimes forget how many times a day electricity serves us. It makes our toast in the morning. It sweeps the rugs. It washes the clothes. Then it irons them. And almost everyone of the many services electricity performs in the home costs only a cent or so... many cost less. In fact, if you paid for electricity as you use it, you could really let your pennies pay your electric bill. Considering the time and labor it saves you, what other money you spend brings greater return in comfort and convenience.

Fretful DAYS
Restless NIGHTS
...give child Castoria

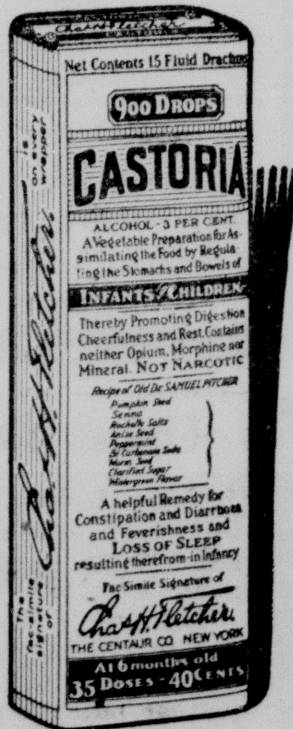

FUSSY, fretful, can't sleep, won't eat... It isn't always easy to find just where the trouble is with a young child. It may be a stomach upset; it may be sluggish bowels.

But when little tongues are coated and there is even a slight suspicion of bad breath—it's time for Castoria!

Castoria, you know, is a pure vegetable preparation especially made for babies and children. When Baby cries with colic or is fretful because of constipation, Castoria brings quick comfort, and, with relief from pain, soothes him to restful sleep. For older children—up through all the school years, Castoria is equally effective in helping to right irregularities. Just give it in larger doses. What a comfort Castoria is to mothers!

Get the genuine, with Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on wrapper and the name Castoria that always appears like this: will take over these homes and what they will do with them?

It is easy to see what brought about these conditions. We went on a political spree when the United States entered the World War some fifteen years ago. The United States spent thirty-four billion dollars in that war, equal to the value of fifty full crops of cotton of the entire South. Since the war, this government has refunded to the big million dollar corporations three billion dollars for the war taxes they paid. Nothing to the little fellow. And the government has loaned to the countries of Europe, South America and other countries many more billion dollars. These loans were gifts.

The State government of Texas is now spending more than one hundred million dollars each year for the expenses of government and building of roads; and the commissioner's courts and City governments throughout the State are stepping high and attempting to follow the example set by the federal government and state government. All the governments, national, state, county and city are demanding and clamoring for still more money and more taxes.

Could there be any doubt what the condition would be when the political spree was over.

The various governments of this country have not always run as they have in the last 15 years. The change in the method of conducting the governments will be discussed in the next article in the Cameron Herald.

fashion and with all prohibition enthusiasm.

In the court trial, E. C. Cole, Southern Pacific Agent, was the defendant. He was charged by indictment with having killed his best friend while under the influence of liquor. M. G. Cox, local attorney, was judge.

The lot of the bootlegger fell to Guy T. Newton, who sold him the stuff. His case had extenuating circumstances because of his war record and his plea for mercy.

F. R. Dunlap was the sheriff and Rev. N. D. Timmerman, pastor of the First Baptist church was the prosecuting attorney. The pastor after a strong appeal won the case and the defendant was sentenced to prison. Miss LaVerne Bowmer was court reporter.

Only a short deliberation was required to reach the verdict and assess punishment.

She was born in Alabama and was a student at Mary Sharp College. She came to Texas in 1886 and had lived in Waco for 24 years making her home for the past several years with her children here. Mrs. Whitman's late husband, Rev.

Dubose Whitman, was founder of the Gurley Baptist church, now the Third Street Baptist church. This was his last pastorate. During the later years of his ministry he was in home mission work. He died December 27, 1919.

Surviving Mrs. Whitman are eight children, Mrs. Davis Gurley and Mrs. Alice Sampson of Waco, Mrs. Jen Whitman Fraser of Wichita Falls, Mrs. John Gurley of Ferris, Mrs. T. A. ed highway from Georgetown through Granger to Cameron, but there was a general need of a good roads campaign. He mentioned also the proposed Minerva cut-off, which he thought the county would go ahead with as soon as Tax Collector, Roy Law, makes his report.

Mr. Hoover spoke of the advantage of good roads and suggested that next Monday night's meeting be devoted to that issue.

It was suggested that additional names be added to the good roads committee and on motion duly made and carried, the chair appointed C. E. Akers, W. R. Hoover and H. P. Culpepper. The other members of this committee are George T. Graves, J. W. Coleman and Frank Lesovsky. This committee was asked to get in touch with the Granger committee and report next Monday night.

Notice was read from Miss Minnie Bartholomew that the Home Farm Special Train would be at the Santa Fe depot next Thursday, February 26, from 1:30 to 6:00 p. m. and urged everybody to see the many interesting exhibits and hear the instructive lectures by A. & M. experts.

officer in the Southwest enjoys a greater esteem than does the popular sheriff from Milam. He has been for years an influential member of the state association for sheriff's, having held responsible positions in its organization.

Not only does Mr. Blaylock enjoy the compliment of efficiency in service as a peace officer but among friends and neighbors his qualities as a citizen are appreciated. While his record of service may be classified as conservative because he is never influenced by premature decisions, yet his record will disclose that for law enforcement he has no superior in Texas. Court records in Milam County sustain a very good estimate of his service and although he is modest in his claims of service his many friends stand ready to speak for him.

A native Texan Mr. Blaylock carries in his nature an appreciation of the best traditions of the Southwest and always there is about him an atmosphere that inspires confidence for leadership and in every emergency dependence may be placed in his courage and judgment.

Mr. Blaylock plans to meet the voters of the county in every section and talk with them regarding his candidacy and while there may be some he will not see he takes this opportunity to solicit their vote and support with the assurance in advance that he will give back in service full payment for the confidence implied by his nomination and re-election. Anything his friends may do for him will be greatly appreciated.

State of Texas or the County he serves and under all conditions, both trying and easy, he has followed the same rule of fidelity and takes more pride in being able to show what his efforts have produced in this way than his successive election to this office for he believes that a public office is a public trust and that those who hold office should always regard its duties as nothing short of one who is employed by the people and to them is due the best that is in him. So believing Mr. Law submits his candidacy for re-election. He has not held the office long and he feels the need for this employment and wants to serve the people who have elected him their collector of taxes.

Auditing firms have uniformly complimented Mr. Law on his system of records and the lawful and proper disposition he has made at all times of public funds and in no instance has he acted other than meeting the full requirements of the law and has in this way given ample protection and security for all public money passing through his office.

Mr. Law desires very much an early respite from his duties so that he may visit the various communities of the county and talk with his friends, the people, about his candidacy for re-election. He hopes to see each one but in the event he cannot speak with all he takes this method of sending his solicitation for vote and support of those whom he will not perhaps be able to see. Anything his friends may do will be greatly appreciated with assurances in advance that he will pay back in service the obligation he owes to the people for their support in re-electing him to this office.

His Boom Swells and Grows

Here's his picture, autographed especially for the newspapers of Texas by John N. Garner of Uvalde, the fiery speaker of the U. S. house of representatives. Although he says he doesn't "give a damn" whether he is nominated for president at the Democratic convention, the move to award him this honor is rapidly becoming nation-wide.

PIONEER ORCHESTRA IS FEATURED IN BROADCAST

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS ARE MADE OF MUSIC BY POPULAR LOCAL COMPANY

The Pioneer Orchestra of Cameron in their broadcast Friday night, February 19, covered an unusual wide area. Letters of appreciation came, up to time of writing, from 21 cities in Texas. They are as follows: Angleton, Bartlett, Bryan, Cameron, Corpus Christi, East Bernard, Frydek, Granger, Ganado, Houston, Hallettsville, Jarrell, Navasota, New Braunfels, Sealy, Snook, Schulenburg, San Antonio, Temple, Three Rivers, and Waco. Out of Texas letters came from Moore, Oklahoma; Lincoln, Nebraska; and the far off Blythe, California.

The members of the orchestra felt that the broadcast was successful and appreciate the many nice letters and the interest taken by their friends in Cameron and other places. Every broadcast of this or any other type helps to boost Cameron.

Fred Jackson made some fine records of the WACO broadcast and also eight records on Monday night, Washington's Birthday. The orchestra made the last recordings at Mr. Jackson's home. Mr. Jackson is an accomplished whistler and aided the orchestra in making some of the records with whistling Monday night.

Program of WACO broadcast included the following: Dawn of the Century March, The Orphan Waltz, Comin' Round the Mountain, A Jolly Social Waltz, At the Mill March, When Irish Eyes are Smiling.

The personnel of the orchestra is Mrs. Wm. Balhorn, piano; L. F. Sliama, trumpet; Wm. J. Parma, trombone; Fred J. Matula, traps and J. T. Parma, clarinet and director.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams spent the holiday, Monday, in Houston visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Meta McCown has been confined to her bed for a week. She is reported to be some better.

Wiley Preston Jr., is the name Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mangum gave to their young seven pound son who made his arrival Monday, February 15 at the Cameron hospital. Mother and babe are doing nicely and have been removed to their home.

Misses Ruby and Lorena Galler of Buckholts were Cameron shoppers on Monday.

Miss Nancy Rae Slocumb spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Slocumb, returning to Austin in time for school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams have returned from a visit with relatives in Houston.

R. B. Rylander Jr., spent a few days in Lubbock with old school friends.

Checker players of this section will be interested in the announcement by Penn Wolf, District Clerk, that he has received a letter from Basil Chase, 22 year old professional from Kansas City who is soon to make a tour of Texas.

Mr. Wolf wants to arrange a tourney for checker players here featuring Mr. Chase who challenges Milam county's best and will play them blindfolded and it is said guarantees to beat them.

Mr. Wolf is a checker player of note, having made a study of the game. He says that some of the best checker players in the country are in Milam county.

Aside from his work as district clerk, Mr. Wolf finds diversion in another way. He is a breeder and exhibitor of Walker hounds and loves the chase. Dogs from the kennels of Mr. Wolf have been distributed over the United States, notably White Stride who was sold to a Kentucky fancier.

It is believed that if Mr. Wolf arranges his checker tourney, it will be necessary to arrange for a large meeting place to accommodate the people. Few realize the extent of interest shown in chess and checkers and without some knowledge of the game little can be known of the skill required in playing a creditable tourney.

Cameron awaits Mr. Wolf's plans with interest. In reality it will be a welcome entertainment and will bring many people to Cameron.

dom that has made for the court a record of efficiency and justice at all times. Reversals on his decisions have been negligible compared with the number of instances in which he has been sustained by the higher courts.

Judge Watson has been most considerate at all times in making excuses for jurors who could not serve and in this as well as other ways has brought about excellent cooperation with his court.

In offering again for this office Judge Watson believes he can render a distinct service and offers his record in office for consideration of the people of this district. He has been a resident for many years and enjoys a wide acquaintance and friendship. The term for which he offers is for four years and will expire again in 1936.

He will make as active campaign as will be permitted from his duties on the bench. He hopes to greet the voters and to speak with them about his candidacy and asks his friends over the district to lend their support and influence and assures them that anything they may do will be greatly appreciated and the obligation will be gratefully discharged in increased devotion to duty.

N. H. Butts

Butts has made a faithful effort at all times to serve the people of this precinct and while it has always been his policy to look to duty first he hopes to be able to see the voters and talk with them about his candidacy for re-election. He does not believe that public office is merely political to be used for selfish motives but that public office is a place to serve and that every public official is a representative of the people in a place of fixed responsibility and the measure of employment depends upon the holder of that place to make good. In this connection he invites you to look at his record in office, pledging you his best efforts if re-elected. Anything his friends may do will be greatly appreciated.

Boy Scout News

A very interesting meeting of the Cameron Council of Boy Scouts was held Thursday night, February 16.

The gathering was presided over by John C. Young, Chairman of the District. Those present were John C. Young, A. G. Kunz, C. H. Pollard, W. G. Gillis, F. E. Jackson, O. C. Acree, Roy Weems, B. L. Archer, F. A. Michalka, J. A. Lindle, Max Collins and A. J. Lawrence, Scout Executive.

Mr. Lawrence made a talk on a Civic Service project which is to be launched to all of the troops in the council and which consists of tree planting. Every troop will be asked to plant one or more trees either on some church yard, school ground or park. J. A. Lindle made a very fine talk on what his Scouts are getting out of Scouting. F. E. Jackson gave a good report of the condition of the Scout troops in Cameron and Judge Gillis announced that a Court of Honor would be held on February 26. It was decided to permanently give the plaque to the troop that wins it next time, rather than draw the matter out any further, and it is hoped that a new trophy will be put up. F. E. Jackson has been appointed chairman of the Cub program of the Boy Scouts of America for the Heart of Texas Council by Dr. W. P. Meroney, President of the Council. Mr. Lawrence spoke about the new camp that has been donated to the council and outlined the plans for our summer camping. A. G. Kunz made a report on the annual Heart of Texas Council meeting, touching upon the highlights of the meeting as they impressed him. John Young made a similar report on the annual regional meeting held at Fort Worth recently.

It was voted unanimously to hold the next district meeting in Rockdale on March 15. A special effort is going to be made to get the representatives of the other towns in the district present at this next district meeting.

All who are interested in Scouting are most cordially invited to attend the Court of Honor to be held in the auditorium of Yoe high school on Friday night, February 26 at 7:30 p. m. There will be no charge for admittance.

Those who have been present at former meetings of the Court of Honor know how interesting they are, we do not have to urge them, they will come. If you have never had the pleasure, drop in on this one. You will enjoy a profitable evening and encourage the boys who have made notable advances in Scoutcraft.

Troop 53, J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster
Regular meeting was held Friday night at 7:30 p. m., after attending to routine business and receiving our Court of Honor tickets, we visited Troop 32 of which B. L. Archer is Scoutmaster. The account of the joint meeting is found under notes of Troop 32.

On last Sunday morning at the Baptist Sunday school, Life Scout, John Martin and Eagle Scouts, Billy Gillis, John S. Burns and John C. Haygood, presented a playlet featuring George Washington. So great was their success that they were asked to repeat their performance before the B. Y. P. U. on Sunday night, which they were happy to do.

On Monday night at the Washington's Birthday Celebration at the Masonic Hall these Scouts presented the playlet before San Andres Masonic Lodge, which sponsors Troop 53. The performance was enthusiastically received, and one of the visiting brothers referred to it as "the treat of the evening."

By special request the playlet was presented as the feature at the Geo. Washington celebration at the Ben Arnold school building on Thursday night. These young Thespians are certainly making a name for themselves and bringing honor to their troop.

All friends of Scouting are urged to come to the Court of Honor. There will be something doing.

Troop 32, B. L. Archer, Scoutmaster
Regular meeting was held Friday night at their Scout hall. The joint hike of troops 53 and 32 had to be postponed on account of inclement weather. Tickets were issued to the Scouts with instructions to work hard for the best attendance at the Court of Honor.

Later in the evening Scoutmaster Haygood brought Troop 53 for a visit. A number of contest games were played including number arranging, compass, circle rope, jumping and laughable Mike and Ike. After a thoroughly enjoyable evening the meeting was closed with a prayer led by Scoutmaster Archer.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster
Troop 52 held their regular meeting Friday night February 19, 1932. Despite the fact that the weather was very bad, there was a good attendance. Those present were nine registered Scouts, the Scoutmaster and assistant, the three troop committeemen, four visiting boys, and four adult visitors, making a total of 22. The main feature of the games was a tag of war. A one-inch rope about 50 feet long was used. This contest became so exciting that the adult visitors began to fall in on the losing side, until every one became mixed up in the game. After a ten minute tussle there were plenty of rope burned hands, with neither side getting the best of the other. The address of the evening was a personal health lecture by Dr. A. S. Valenta. The meeting wound up with a hot game of smut. It is very interesting to see the way the adult visitors fell into the games and observe the enjoyment they got out of the play time.

Troop 52 urges all their friends to come out and back them up Friday night at the Court of Honor.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor and membership of the Methodist church invite the non-attending citizenship of our community to attend the church services at their church next Sunday. Rev. Luther Waggoner of Georgeown, will preach morning and evening using as subjects for his sermons "No Man Liveth To Himself" at 11 a. m., and "Zachaeus Up the Sycamore Tree" at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Waggoner is a very pleasing and convincing speaker. The pastor invites, urgently, every member of the congregation to be present. The Sunday school meets promptly at 9:45 a. m. and Epworth Leagues at 6:30 p. m.

The Church of God, with all other institutions, has felt the effect of the conditions through which all the world is passing. But let no one be alarmed; it is the one institution of which it is said that "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Let us turn our thought and feet toward the church and help make it a real strong institution in our community and we shall see the beneficent effect in our own private lives as well as our homes and social life.

Two Boys Are Held On Car Theft Charge

Deputy Sheriff Will Vaughan arrested two boys Tuesday morning who gave their names as J. P. Vandever and Albert Tidwell and claimed they lived in Fort Worth.

They were driving a green 1929 model Chevrolet coupe they are said to have stolen from Grady Morris, jeweler of Decatur, Texas.

On their way to Cameron they were charged with taking a milk can and breaking into a filling station, filling their car and milk can with gas.

The Cameron officer was first attracted by the boys trying to sell Ford tires with wheels, and upon examining the car found mail addressed to Grady Morris of Decatur. The boys confessed taking the car and are now in the Cameron jail. It is reported that the grand jury at Decatur is investigating the matter.

FORTY-TWO CLUB

One of the prettiest patriotic parties on the social calendar last week was when Mrs. Huson Aoles entertained the Forty-Two Club at her home on North Houston Street.

A handsome hand-painted picture of George Washington over-draped with crossed flags was a pleasing feature of the decorations. White narcissus and other spring flowers were noted at pleasing points.

Five tables of games were laid with covers in the chosen theme, centered with a cherry tree stump decorated with the cherry fruit, bearing a miniature hatchet. Tally pads, score cards and pencils aided in carrying out the chosen theme.

Merry games were enjoyed until a late hour when the hostess removed game covers and laid the tables with patriotic covers with napery to match and served an ice in the design of a bust of George Washington, with individual cakes embossed with red cherries. Red, white and blue mints were passed. Plate favors were pins with pictures of "The Father of Our Country."

The hostess was assisted in the hospitalities of the afternoon by Mrs. J. Z. Young, Mrs. Dr. Brooks and Mrs. Bennett.

Guests other than club members present were Mesdames Bob Terry, Conn Miller, Lloyd Mitchell, O. B. Forstmann, Niley Smith, Bob Bennett, J. Z. Brook and Dr. Brook.

FRIENDLY BIBLE CLASS

Mrs. W. B. Levy was a delightful hostess to the Friendly Bible Class on Friday afternoon at her home. A George Washington theme was in evidence in all the appointments. Red and white spring blossoms were arranged throughout the house.

A George Washington program was rendered during the hours:

A paper was given by Mrs. Walter Sharp.

Reading, Mrs. E. C. Cole.

Song, Mrs. Alex Triggs.

Reading, Miss Norma Jean McAlwraith.

Delicious cherry pie topped with whipped cream was served at the close of the afternoon.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Early Spring flowers, featuring the narcissus and violets, were used to advantage in the decorations of the rooms when Mrs. Dan Tyson entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club this week.

Three tables were attractively arranged where the accessories further enhanced the chosen motif. A number of enjoyable games closed and table cuts went to Mrs. Vernon McIntyre and Mrs. Giles Avriett, pretty growing plants in decorated pots.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Conn Miller in serving an appetizing salad course on green trays that were graced with pretty bowls of sweet elyssium and spring violets.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Vernon McIntyre of Alpine and Mrs. Geo. Waller of Dallas.

MONDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

The Monday Night Bridge Club enjoyed a George Washington party in the home of Miss Grace Epim Monday evening. Red japonica, white narcissus and red begonias lent charm to the rooms given over to the games.

Tally cards were miniature hatchets in the prevailing color theme and pads and pencils added color to the tables. A number of games were enjoyed and at the close high trophy went to Mrs. Bert Miller, a colonial silhouette picture. Mrs. Lee McLane was consoled with a double deck of bridge cards.

The hostess served a dainty collation on trays centered with red, white and blue boxes forming a square where a miniature George Washington stood in center and were given as table favors and went to Mrs. Lee McLane, Mrs. Gaston Barnore and Miss Dallis Young.

Guests beside club members were Mrs. Albert Collins, Mrs. Gaston Barnore, Mrs. Hilton Culpepper, Mrs. Lee McLane, Misses Nadine Bragg and Dallis Young.

HISTORY CLUB

Mrs. A. C. Strickland was hostess to the History Club Tuesday afternoon at her apartment in the home of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Henderson on West 7th Street.

Subject of the lesson was India. Interesting talks were made on India by Mrs. R. P. Jeter and Mrs. James L. Coleman.

At the close the hostess regaled her guests with creamed chicken and hot tea. She was assisted in the hospitalities of the occasion by her mother, Mrs. Henderson.

FONTAINE-MURPHY

Charles Fontaine and Miss Zell Murphey were married Sunday morning February 14 at the home of the Methodist pastor, Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Condrey at Milano. Rev. Condrey performed the ring ceremony that united them for life.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. A. Smith of Taylor. Is a young lady of culture and enjoys the friendship of a large circle of friends. She was attractively dressed in a modish costume of brown with orange trimmings and wore a becoming hat in tonal shade.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fontaine of Jones Prairie. Is a young man of fine business qualifications and for the past two years has been head of the shoe department at Cheeves Brothers Store in Cameron.

The happy couple motored to the home of the groom's parents immediately after the ceremony where they were tendered a midday luncheon given in their honor.

They are now keeping house in Cameron.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

Ladies of the Baptist church met in private homes Monday afternoon for study in Royal Service.

The Eunice Taylor Glass Circle met with Mrs. Archie McLerran with nine

Mrs. Grady Cooper was hostess for the Lillie Mae Hundley group with 14 members in attendance with Mrs. Cooper as leader in the lesson.

Lois Howard Mashburn circle had as hostess Miss Lil Jeter, Miss Jeter leading the lesson study. There were 10 members present.

Mrs. Julian was hostess to the Lotie Moon circle. Mrs. Conn Miller was leader of the lesson. Sixteen members were in attendance. Next Monday will be fifth Monday and no meetings will be held.

MRS. GAITHER ENTERTAINS

The home of Mrs. W. E. Gaither was the scene of a series of colonial parties where the George Washington theme was emphasized in the decorations, bridge game accessories and refreshment course.

Spring flowers were tastefully arranged in modish receptacles and were placed throughout the reception rooms given over to the afternoon's pleasures. Those receiving trophies during the series of bridge games were Mrs. S. A. Cottle, Mrs. Julian Baskin, Mrs. Oxsheer Smith, Mrs. Vernon McIntyre and Miss Rose Risch.

Crystal colonial baskets filled with spring blossoms graced the center of the refreshment trays and were given as table cuts at the close of the social hour on Friday afternoon.

ROBERTS-TURNEY

Alvin H. Roberts and Miss Estelle Turney, of Hanover, were quietly married Thursday evening, February 18 at eight o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. C. A. Lehnberg reading the ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Turney of Hanover. She is a graduate of Cameron high school and afterward attended Tarleton College at Stephenville where she was deservedly popular with a large circle of friends. She was attractively dressed in a new spring model of blue and wore a becoming spring hat in blue.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Roberts of Cameron. He was graduated from Cameron high school several years ago; is a young man of splendid business qualities and holds a prominent position with the Admiralty Coffee Company. The happy couple spent several days in Houston and other points of interest on a short honeymoon, returning to Cameron where they will make their home.

4 Legged Hen; Rooster Walking Like Chaplin, Poultry Yard Freaks

A hen with four legs and a rooster that stands straight up and walks like Charlie Chaplin may be seen in the poultry yard at the Carson Harris grocery in Cameron.

These freaks of the poultry world have created a lot of interest. Often one reads of a three legged chicken but seldom if ever a four legged fowl. The hen is a white leghorn and a healthy bird, the two extra legs growing from the left side, giving one the impression that she might walk on her back if she chooses.

The rooster, named Charlie Chaplin, is no less an interesting study. Like a clown he surveys the yard and walks about with a wobble that mimics the great comedian, reminding one of a big fat duck ambling about.

ROY LAW CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION TO OFFICE

RECORD OF SERVICE MAKES WIDE APPEAL FOR POPULAR TAX COLLECTOR

Roy Law, tax collector for Milam County, is a candidate for re-election to that office, subject to the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932 and submits to the people of Milam County his record of service in office.

Based upon comparison Mr. Law's record of service has not only brought to the office of Tax Collector a measure of administrative efficiency that keeps faith with the finest traditions of office holding but has brought him into prominence over the state where his services have been utilized in the position of president of the State Tax Collector's Association. This honor to Mr. Law came as a result of observation made of his record of service and to the untiring efforts he directs to his work. One of the youngest men to serve in that capacity, his many friends appreciate this honor and take it as an indication to justify in large measure the confidence first placed in him when they elected him to the office of Tax Collector in Milam County.

It is not, however, upon his record of service to the state association that the people of Milam county look when they think of entrusting duties so important as these, but to the unequalled integrity of his own official acts while serving the people of this county. It can be said of Mr. Law that when he pledged his best efforts to the people of the county in this office, he kept faith with them and in offering for re-election, his friends throughout the county are praising his services.

In order to appreciate the volume of business transacted in the office of Tax Collector one must visit this office and go over the detail of it. When its multiplicity of duties are understood, it is more easy to understand that only efficiency may count in making a record such as Mr. Law has made. His friends point out for him that at no time has his accounts been at variance with those of the

RECORD OF SERVICE OFFERED AS PROOF OF FAITH KEPT WITH PEOPLE HERE

N. H. Butts, county commissioner for Precinct No. 2 of Milam county, is a candidate for re-election to that office subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held on July 23, 1932.

Mr. Butts authorizes The Herald to place his name in the proper announcement column and in making his decision to offer for re-election he will find that he has pleased a large and loyal friendship in this precinct. The record he has made in this office is proof of the faith he has kept with the people who have elected him and in offering for re-election Mr. Butts considers that this is his greatest recommendation because it has always been his policy to serve. His friends believe his record one of the best in Texas and they will be interested in his announcement for re-election and will do all within their power for his re-nomination.

During his terms in office Mr.

S. P. Cross, Mason Fifty Years Given Award Of Gold Button In Waco

Among the number present, who was eligible to this distinction was Sterling P. Cross of Cameron. Mr. Cross recently received his button and deservedly wears it with pride. Mr. Cross is a Shriner and has attended a number of grand meetings of Masonic fraternity.

SHERIFF L. L. BLAYLOCK CANDIDATE RE-ELECTION

POPULAR PEACE OFFICER AND WIDELY KNOWN SHERIFF SUBMITS CANDIDACY

Leonard L. Blaylock, sheriff of Milam county, is a candidate for re-election to that office, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932.

The announcement of his candidacy for re-election will be received with favor and interest by the people of Milam County who know the quality and character of service he has rendered in this office and his friends will have his grateful appreciation for anything they may do to secure his nomination to this office for which he is qualified by training and experience to fill as few peace officers may serve.

Sheriff Blaylock throughout his official career has subscribed with unflinching fidelity to the highest traditions that office implies and his success is more than a local appreciation. He is known far beyond the borders of Milam county for his performance in office and his success has come as a result of his training and natural adaptation as a peace officer. In making arrests and enforcing the law he knows in intimate detail all necessary requirements in securing evidence and his keen detective ability stamps him a master at man hunting and secures for the state at all times a consistent record of crime abatement.

Friends of sheriff Blaylock advance the estimation that today no peace

ROCKDALE STORE BREAK CLEARED AFTER MONTHS

SHERIFF BLAYLOCK ENDS MAN HUNT WITH ARREST OF THREE NEGROES

A seven months man hunt by Sheriff Leonard Blaylock has ended and three negroes are facing felony charges growing out of robbery of Scarbrough & Hicks store in Rockdale on the night of July 18, 1931 when night watchman Charlie Landers narrowly escaped death.

The successful termination of the case is a fine piece of detective work for Sheriff Blaylock who always gets his man.

The negroes, all residents of Temple, are Hubert, alias Heck Robertson, Mangus and Gus Walker. The brothers have been freed temporarily on a bond of $3000 while Robertson is in the Milam county jail. Charges of burglary and assault with intent to murder have been filed and the next grand jury will return the bills. Robertson, it was said, has made a statement detailing the robbery and telling of the pistol duel in the street for Rockdale. Night watchman Landers peering into the store when the negroes were sacking goods was fired upon through the glass window, the bullet passing through his hat. The negroes ran from the store and the night watchman.

In the store following the attempted robbery was found a large cotton sack filled with dry goods said to be valued at about $1600 abandoned when the negroes fled.

Heck Robertson sustained a severe cut on the right knee and this mishap aided the sheriff in finding him, a Temple negro doctor having been called to treat the patient.

According to Sheriff Blaylock the men all have criminal records. Arrests were made two weeks ago but was kept secret while additional details of the robbery were being cleared up by the sheriff. Robertson was arrested in Taylor and the Walker brothers were arrested in Temple.

Haste Being Made To Assist Farmers to Secure Financing Of Their 1932 Crops

Machinery was set up Wednesday to make available Federal Crop loans to Milam County farmers at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. A committee of four was authorized to solicit funds to pay for two months the committee required to administer the loan benefits.

County Agent George Banzhaf has secured the services of the following men to serve: R. P. Lehman, Buckholts; J. H. Thomas, Gause; Conn R. Isaacs, Rockdale.

All possible haste is being made so as to take advantage of the loans. It is pointed out that this money should not be applied for if a farmer is able to secure finances otherwise and the matter of security was stressed and in a talk to the meeting T. S. Henderson urged that farmers realize that this is a business problem and that each one who secures a loan must do so with a knowledge in advance that repayment should be made when the loan falls due on November 1, 1932.

President Giles L. Avriett of the club was authorized to name the committee.

Secretary Cobb has been asked to assist and applications will be received at his office.

The meeting was held after the following story was put into type for publication.

Federal government loans to farmers in Milam county for raising the 1932 crops will be available, it was said by George Banzhaf, county agent who has been delegated by the government to form a central committee of three.

The committee is to be composed of a banker, farmer and business man, will pass upon and approve loans. Mr. Banzhaf has almost completed his organization but was having difficulty in securing a banker for the place as bankers have felt they could not readily afford to give the time required. There is no salary provided for this work but it was believed a small amount could be arranged. The job would require about 60 days.

The loans will bear interest at five and a half per cent. The limit is $400 for an individual farmer and farmers with tenants may borrow up to $1600. The loans are apportioned on the basis of $3 per acre up to a limit of $400. For example a farmer who tills 100 acres of land may secure $300.

Loans will be eligible for the following purposes: for feed, for seed, for gas and oil to tractor farmers, for fertilizer and some latitude will be granted for other necessities but no debts can be paid with the money. The usual government penalty attaches for making false statements to secure loans.

The government will require crop mortgages to secure the loans. Those who do not necessarily need the loans should not apply. The Congress has made available from fifty to two hundred million dollars to finance the crop.

Notes will be payable November 30, 1932.

THE HOMES IN THE COUNTRY AND IN THE CITIES & TOWNS

By J. K. FREEMAN

The American people have the Federal Government, the State Government, the County Government, and the City Government. This is not all. There is the Family Government, the home.

The home—the family government—is the foundation and support of all the other governments, and if it is undermined or destroyed, all the other governments will fail.

The homes in the countries and in the cities and towns are threatened. The farmers are living on vegetables and other farm products and wear old clothes; but there is the interest and taxes over which they have no control. Interest is constant. It works every day in the year, including Sundays and holidays. Taxes are as unfeeling as the seasons, and mount higher and higher every year; and the farms no longer produce enough to pay these two burdens. Interest and taxes are now delinquent on at least one-fourth of the homes in the country and in the cities and towns, and two years taxes due next year with penalties added. The homes will then be lost, as every business man and woman knows. What will the end be? What will the home owners do and where will they go? Who

JUDGE JOHN WATSON IS ROCKDALE ATTORNEY FOR CANDIDATE RE-ELECTION CRIMINAL DIST. ATTORNEY

POPULAR AND WELL KNOWN JURIST ASKS FOR ANOTHER TERM IN OFFICE

Judge John Watson, judge of the 20th Judicial District, comprising the county of Milam, is a candidate for re-election to that office subject to the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932.

Judge Watson has made one of the most impressive records in all the judiciary of Texas and based upon that record his announcement will be received with popular approval by the people of the county he has served through successive terms in this office. Not only has Judge Watson achieved success in large measure in service in the office of District Judge but his ability has found expression on the bench in other districts where he has been called to preside over the courts to relieve congested dockets and in cases where other judges were excused.

The District Court at Cameron is one of the strong links in the judicial chain of Texas, made so in large measure by the distinguished service rendered by Judge Watson. In all sections of Texas the 20th Judicial District is regarded as a credit to the court system and its records sustain the appreciation in which it is held by the people.

During his term in office, Judge Watson has been fair and impartial in giving to the service of the judiciary character and dignity plus a legal wisdom.

Washington's Prayer For America Recited At Catholic Churches

"Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that Thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government; and to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, and for their fellow citizens of the United States at large. And, finally, that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy, and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind, which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion, and without a humble imitation of whose example in these things, we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

The above prayer was said in all Catholic churches at services on the Sunday preceeding February 22. All of the church bells were tolled 269 times commemorating Washington's bi-centennial celebration.

JUDGE ED GUNN SUBMITS CANDIDACY TO PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTY

In this issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of Judge Ed Gunn, of Rockdale, for the office of Criminal District Attorney of Milam County, subject to the action of the July Democratic primary.

Judge Gunn is a well-known attorney, now holding the office of City Attorney of Rockdale, and previous to his election to that position he served several terms as Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 4, which during his administration was the largest Justice Court in Milam County, his experience being wide and varied in the administration of the law. He has made a close study of the law and of its application, and while Justice of the Peace, was often complimented by the higher courts of Milam County for his thorough methods and complete records in the administration of his office.

Judge Gunn was admitted to the bar in 1920, and has been in the active practice of the law since that date, as well as conducting the duties of the offices to which he has been elected, and is known as an able and forceful speaker—one who can present his case to a court or jury in a clear and concise manner. It has always been his belief and practice that the public is entitled to and should have the best service possible at the hands of its officials.

The office of Criminal District Attorney, as it exists today, includes all the duties formerly placed upon both County and District Attorneys, it being now the duty of such office to represent the State in all Justice Courts, County Court and District Court, as well as being legal adviser for the County, and the Judge believes that if elected to the office he can render this service in an efficient and satisfactory way.

Judge Gunn is one of Rockdale's best and most highly esteemed citizens, and has a host of friends all over the county who will learn of his announcement for this office with interest, and who will take a great degree of pleasure in lending him their active support, believing that he is the logical man to succeed Hon. Jack Lewis, who retires from the office with such a fine record.

MASONS GIVE PROGRAM EULOGIZING WASHINGTON

FIRST PRESIDENT'S TWO HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

An interested audience greeted the speakers at the Masonic Hall Monday evening, February 22, gathered to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birthday, composed of Masons, their wives, families and friends; carrying out a nation wide observance that is being sponsored by the George Washington Bi-centennial commission, which is the greatest of all celebrations.

District Deputy J. W. Haygood, presided. The program opened by singing "America" with Miss Ella Bess Haygood at the piano. One of the interesting features of the evening was the playlet given by four Boy Scouts of Troop 53, that is sponsored by the Masonic Lodge, J. W. Haygood as Scoutmaster. The Scouts to take part were John Martin, Life Scout; John S. Burns, Billie Gillis and John Haygood, Jr., Eagle Scouts.

Hon. E. A. Camp of Rockdale, was introduced and spoke on the "Early training of George Washington, giving events in the life of the first President through the Revolutionary War to his death. The speaker made an appeal to the Masons to check up on their lives and to stand for the ideals as followed by the "Father of Our Country," and as taught by Masonry.

This splendid address was followed by Judge Graham Gillis who traversed the life of George Washington from birth, and said, "Although born of aristocratic parents early in life mixed and mingled with people who lived by earning their livelihood." He was talented for surveying and in early manhood mastered the trade. The speaker gave an interesting account of Washington's ancestry, education, religious, political and social standing, stressing his life as a soldier; loyalty to the Masonic Lodge, and his faith in God. Early in life he became a Mason and attended up to its meetings regularly up to the time of his death.

September 18, 1932 will mark the 139th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the United States capitol building in Washington, D. C., by President George Washington, who attended dressed in the symbolic regalia of the Order of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, wearing the Masonic apron made for him by the wife of his friend, General Lafayette. The first president laid the corner stone at the Southeast corner of the impressive structure which became the federal capitol in the year 1793. The life of George Washington has helped to build of the United States the greatest nation known to mankind, and his name will ever be revered by all nations and peoples of the earth.

Among the out of town visitors were Hon. and Mrs. E. A. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cook, Miss Essie McCall and Emory Camp of Rockdale.

Joe Moore Will Join New York Giants At California Camp

Joe Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore of Gause, was in Cameron last week on a visit with friends and stated that he was leaving this week for California where he will join the New York Giants this summer, and many friends will watch the career of their Milam county friend this season, it being the first season with this team.

Broad Hint

A business man who has just become engaged to be married is a good hearted fellow and popular with his staff; his only drawback from their point of view being that he has no idea of time dictating letters just as everybody is packing up to go home.

As a wedding present they bought him a clock.

It was a fine clock, but it had one defect. It had no hands. In thanking them for the gift, he called attention to this fact.

"Oh," said the man who was making the presentation, "you never look at the time, so we got the jeweler to remove them. They were gold, and he took $5 off the price."

If!

The small boy, aged six, was making a tiny wreath.

"What is it for?" inquired his mother.

"You know you said you heard a mouse in the pantry?"

"Yes."

"And you know you said you thought of buying a trap?"

"Yes."

"Well, if you buy a trap, and if you catch the mouse, and if they drown the mouse after it is caught, and if the mouse is buried, and if we give it a nice funeral, we shall need a wreath, shan't we?"

Wise Reader Will Not

Spoil Joy in New Book

One should read a book in the way he goes through a strange town in his car, Charles E. Tracewell writes, in the Washington Star. He does not stop the vehicle at the court house, and launch forth into a public denunciation of the architect who created the structure.

He does not assemble a gathering of the natives in the square and proceed to tell them that the traffic regulations of their one-horse town are vile, their streets badly in need of repair and their mayor evidently a sap of the first water.

No, he does nothing of the kind. He may see all these things and he may want to be so assertive, but the chances are exactly 100 to nothing that he will merely keep his eyes and ears wide open, be interested in everything he sees and hears and go on about his business, that of getting out of town to the next one.

Reading a new book is somewhat similar. A book is a journey, which, once taken, can never be taken again in its exhilarating newness, its pristine colors, its excitement, its vividness, its commonplace drama.

No matter how fine a book may be, or how much one may enjoy its second reading, or its third or fourth reading, there can never be but one first time with it, and, this being true, one is a fool to spoil it by talking, or snoring, or fuming, in his own behalf.

Native Irish Costumes

Before Queen Elizabeth

Writing of the native costume of Ireland in the early days, "Costume Throughout the Ages" says: "Since Elizabethan days the dress of the Irish has had little to distinguish it from that worn in England, but before the time of that queen who, like Henry III, made many laws pertaining to the clothing of her subjects, Irishmen wore kilts similar to those of the Scotchman, accompanied by leggings laced in by string tipped with bronze, shoes of brown leather, and a pleated linen shirt. Over all was a sleeveless loose cloak that was long and made of bright-colored wool. Some wore a fitted coat, much like the present-day frock coat with tight sleeves, no collar, and a broad girdle at the waist. . . . The women wore a linen undergarment and over this long gowns of the same material, dyed saffron, or a costly fabric imported from the continent. Their long capes had hoods attached. In jewelry, they wore bracelets, pins, brooches, rings, and torques about their necks. Today, modern Continental dress is found in all parts of Ireland, all traces of the old dress having disappeared."

Tribe of Smiling People

The Samoans are a happy race. They are smiling all the time except when they are laughing and it takes very little to make them laugh. A large group of native stevedores toiling under the torrid sun were thrown into convulsions by the sight of a tractor which they were taking from the hold. They concluded it was some new kind of an automobile with a single seat. The Samoan has little or nothing to worry him and hence his jovial disposition. His food grows all about him and his clothing demands are quite limited. A clean garment of bright colors and some cheap jewelry make a well-dressed woman and the young children wear no clothes at all. There are many short and sudden showers, but as a rule the climate is warm and sunny and the temperament of the people seems to be the same.

Not by Bread Alone

Man cannot live by bread alone. He hungers and thirsts after knowledge. He pushes the boundaries of his mind's dominion to the frontiers of the cosmos. The distances between the stars exist in his mental measurements. Can one imagine physical air waves accidentally falling together into Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," or physical type fortuitously arranging itself into Shelley's "Ode to the West Wind," or stones carving themselves and falling together into the cathedral of Amiens? There is a plus quality in such things that overpasses all materialistic needs and that materialism never can explain.—Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Divisions of Orient

Japan, China and the other countries on or near the eastern coast of Asia comprise the geographical region known as the Far East. "The Orient" is a more general term and includes all countries in Asia east of the Mediterranean. "Near East" is applied to Turkey in Europe, Asia Minor, Armenia, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Persia, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Arabia and Egypt. Thus it will be seen that the Near East and the Far East in a general way consist of divisions of the Orient.

"For the Use of the House"

Three-year-old Billy's mother, being particular that he should not annoy the neighbors, would not permit him to go into their house unless on special invitation. So Billy was especially delighted when he was permitted to spend the whole morning with the ten-year-old boy next door, who was very fascinating to him in a thoroughly "grown-up" way. When he got ready to go home, he summoned all his manners. "Thank you for the house," he said, gratefully.

"MELVIN TRAYLOR OF MALONE" SO HE IS REMEMBERED BY "US BOYS" BACK IN LITTLE SUN BAKED TEXAS TOWN

Malone, Texas, Feb. 22.—The people of this little town, who formed the first "Melvin Traylor for President Club" in the United States, still consider the Chicago banker as "one of us boys and a square shooter in every way." Farmers and business men alike are unanimous in their praise and esteem for their former townsman who has risen from cashier of their little bank to the presidency of one of the nation's largest financial institutions.

Pioneers who created this small black land, cotton area town thirty odd years ago vividly recollect the year more than a quarter of a century ago when Mel Traylor was cashier of the year-old bank of Malone and declared that the voting populace unanimously wants Traylor for president.

August Wagner, a farmer, put into words the thought of many of the citizens:

"You bet I remember Melvin Traylor and I want to do anything and everything I can to help elect him President. I used to bank with Mel when he was here, and he sure is a square shooter. They tell me that he is now a big banker in Chicago, but when he comes back to Malone he remembers every one of us by our first names and is just another one of us boys."

Traylor's banking hours while in Malone are in sharp contrast to the customary hours of the present day, according to L. F. C. Schmidt, a farmer.

"Melvin was always tending to his business and he would let us farmers in the bank late at night or early in the morning to transact our cotton business, so we could get back to the field by sun up and not lose any time from work," he explained.

"Now, I never had no schoolin' except dey taught me some Bible back in Germany," Schmidt continued, "But there I learnt that I shouldn't do nothing to you that I don't want you to do to me, and dat if I owe you a dollar I am supposed to, and I am going to, pay you dat dollar. Now dat is de way dat boy Melvin Traylor was. What we want is a President of this country dat will be like dat boy Traylor was as cashier of our little bank, be fair and good to every body and try to help us farmers and not just himself."

S. Q. Pierce, a grocer who was cotton planted when Mel Traylor was in Malone, tells of an incident which, he says, characterizes "Traylor's keen observation which marked his business transactions here and has helped him go on up." Pierce relates that Traylor, having known him but a few months, identified him at a distant bank by simply stating that he was minus a thumb on his right hand. It worked and Pierce's check was cashed. It was the only time Pierce was ever identified in that fashion.

"And you know, Mel never forgot that identification he gave me, for the last time he was here, he was laughing over it," Pierce said. "It would be a wonderful thing for this nation, and especially for us country fellows, if Mel Traylor is our next

Traylor's aggressiveness in early life is related by Mrs. Werley, postmistress at Malone. Hill County farm homes of the days when Mel Traylor was there, she said, usually had but one source of heat, that of a fireplace centrally located. Traylor wanted to rent a room with heat in it, so he could read and study at night. Not finding such, he fixed himself a bed in the back of the bank where he could not only read and study but could save room rent, an important item for his salary as cashier was only $75 a month.

There were not many forms of entertainment in the small town that was just being founded, she said, except church activities. "But Melvin always was a leader and a good mixer, and soon he was directing the young folks of the town in doing various things at the church for diversion and entertainment."

An instance in which Traylor, as cashier of the Malone Bank, turned away accounts with the advice that money should stay at home, is told by Jim Rankin of the Bynum postoffice.

"Bynum is not far from Malone," he relates, "and the people of Bynum soon got to know and like the young fellow that was cashier of the Malone Bank, they liked the straight forward way he did business. I was in Malone on business one day, and, knowing and admiring Traylor, I went to him to open up an account in his bank. He didn't seem to want to take the account and told me that my money belonged at home. He told several Bynum people the same thing, and naturally the result was that they liked him all the more. He explained to us that it would be best all the way around for the money to stay at home, where it could help those who earned it. Now that characterized his business in all ways. I sure want to help elect him President."

Traylor boarded with E. L. Tacker, grocer, for a short time after his arrival in Malone, "but we didn't get to see very much of Melvin for he worked so doggone hard and long," Tacker says.

"But he always had time to help us do what was best and never forgot anybody, and for that reason he was liked. They haven't forgotten him here, not by any means, and this town is unanimously for him."

M. M. (Hy) Traylor, Melvin's brother, is now vice-president and cashier of the Malone State Bank, which several years ago took over the Malone Bank in which Melvin worked. He is very philosophical about the boom to place his brother in the White House.

"It's mighty nice to have people think he is good enough to be President, even though he may not be elected. I had a letter from brother M. A. a day or so ago, but he said nothing at all about the people urging him as the Democratic Presidential nominee. He only wrote about some business and some of his old friends around here."

Thorndale Attorney Urged To Run For District Attorney

Friends of our local attorney and enterprising citizen, Hon. O. D. Graham, are urging him to consider making the race for District Attorney of Milam county to succeed Jack Lewis, who has made a public statement that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself for this office. Mr. Graham is well qualified to fill the office and is quite well and favorably known over Milam county, having practiced law here for many years and is a prominent member of the Milam County Bar Association, having gained prominence as a very able attorney, and enjoys a very lucrative practice. Mr. Graham has the matter under consideration and will probably make a decision on the matter in a short while.—Thorndale Champion.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter Is Buried In Belton

Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Mary Carpenter who died at her home on South Main Street, Belton, Friday morning, February 19 at four o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

Mrs. Carpenter was born September 14, 1847 in the state of Tennessee and came to Texas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Lee, pioneers, and settled in Bell county in 1862. Mrs. Carpenter had made her home in Bell county ever since. She was the mother of Mrs. M. M. Johnson and had spent months at a time visiting in her home. She had been a devoted Christian and member of the Methodist church since early girlhood and by her sweet Christian graces had drawn around her a large circle of friends who regret her passing.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Stewart, pastor of the Methodist church in Belton. Burial was made in the South Belton cemetery, by the side of her late husband who died about 23 years ago.

Deceased is survived by five daughters and four sons: Mrs. M. M. Johnson of Cameron, Mrs. Annie Alsop of Dallas, Mrs. W. M. Ray and Mrs. H. S. Northrup of Houston, Mrs. Alma Campbell and Mrs. J. E. Mitchell of Belton, Ben and Harvey Carpenter of Houston, Joe and Tom Carpenter of Belton; and one brother, Brown F. Lee of San Angelo, all of whom were present at the funeral excepting Mrs. Northrup, who was prevented from attending on account of illness.

George T. Moore, student in State University, spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tiff Moore.

NOT your LIGHTING BILL

BUT.....

your ELECTRIC SERVICE BILL

If we itemized your electric bill you would then see that lighting is really only a small part. So accustomed have we become to the other electric services that we sometimes forget how many times a day electricity serves us. It makes our toast in the morning. It sweeps the rugs. It washes the clothes. Then it irons them. And almost everyone of the many services electricity performs in the home costs only a cent or so... many cost less. In fact, if you paid for electricity as you use it, you could really let your pennies pay your electric bill. Considering the time and labor it saves you, what other money you spend brings greater return in comfort and convenience.

Fretful DAYS
Restless NIGHTS
...give child Castoria

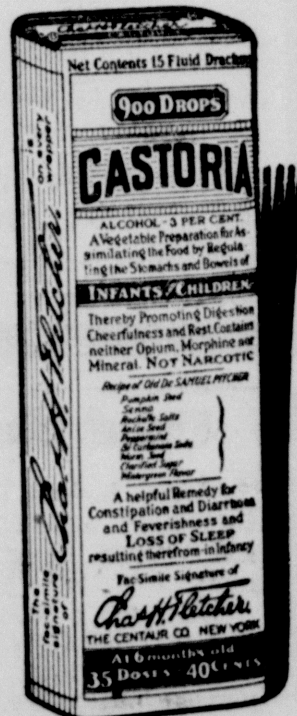

FUSSY, fretful, can't sleep, won't eat... It isn't always easy to find just where the trouble is with a young child. It may be a stomach upset; it may be sluggish bowels.

But when little tongues are coated and there is even a slight suspicion of bad breath—it's time for Castoria!

Castoria, you know, is a pure vegetable preparation especially made for babies and children. When Baby cries with colic or is fretful because of constipation, Castoria brings quick comfort, and, with relief from pain, soothes him to restful sleep. For older children—up through all the school years, Castoria is equally effective in helping to right irregularities. Just give it in larger doses. What a comfort Castoria is to mothers!

will take over these homes and what will they do with them?

It is easy to see what brought about these conditions. We went on a political spree when the United States entered the World War some fifteen years ago. The United States spent thirty-four billion dollars in that war, equal to the value of fifty full crops of cotton of the entire South. Since the war, this government has refunded to the big million dollar corporations three billion dollars for the war taxes they paid. Nothing to the little fellow. And the government has loaned to the countries of Europe, South America and other countries many more billion dollars. These loans were gifts.

The State government of Texas is now spending more than one hundred million dollars each year for the expenses of government and building of roads; and the commissioner's courts and City governments throughout the State are stepping high and attempting to follow the example set by the federal government and state government. All the governments, national, state, county and city are demanding and clamoring for still more money and more taxes.

Could there be any doubt what the condition would be when the political spree was over.

The various governments of this country have not always run as they have in the last 15 years. The change in the method of conducting the governments will be discussed in the next article in the Cameron Herald.

Court Trial

fashion and with all prohibition enthusiasm.

In the court trial, E. C. Cole, Southern Pacific Agent, was the defendant. He was charged by indictment with having killed his best friend while under the influence of liquor. M. G. Cox, local attorney, was judge.

The lot of the bootlegger fell to Guy T. Newton, who sold him the stuff. His case had extenuating circumstances because of his war record and his plea for mercy.

F. R. Dunlap was the sheriff and Rev. N. D. Timmerman, pastor of the First Baptist church was the prosecuting attorney. The pastor after a strong appeal won the case and the defendant was sentenced to prison. Miss LaVerne Bowmer was court reporter.

Only a short deliberation was required to reach the verdict and assess punishment.

Mrs. Whitman's late husband, Rev.

Dubose Whitman, was founder of the Gurley Baptist church, now the Third Street Baptist church. This was his last pastorate. During the later years of his ministry he was in home mission work. He died December 27, 1919.

ed highway from Georgetown through Granger to Cameron, but there was a general need of a good roads campaign. He mentioned also the proposed Minerva cut-off, which he thought the county would go ahead with as soon as Tax Collector, Roy Law, makes his report.

Mr. Hoover spoke of the advantage of good roads and suggested that next Monday night's meeting be devoted to that issue.

It was suggested that additional names be added to the good roads committee and on motion duly made and carried, the chair appointed C. E. Akers, W. R. Hoover and H. P. Culpepper. The other members of this committee are George T. Graves, J. W. Coleman and Frank Lesovsky. This committee was asked to get in touch with the Granger committee and report next Monday night.

Notice was read from Miss Minnie Bartholomew that the Home Farm Special Train would be at the Santa Fe depot next Thursday, February 26, from 1:30 to 6:00 p. m. and urged everybody to see the many interesting exhibits and hear the instructive lectures by A. & M. experts.

officer in the Southwest enjoys a greater esteem than does the popular sheriff from Milam. He has been for years an influential member of the state association for sheriffs, having held responsible positions in its organization.

Not only does Mr. Blaylock enjoy the compliment of efficiency in service as a peace officer but among friends and neighbors his qualities as a citizen are appreciated. While his record of service may be classified as conservative because he is never influenced by premature decisions, yet his record will disclose that for law enforcement he has no superior in Texas. Court records in Milam County sustain a very good estimate of his service and although he is modest in his claims of service his many friends stand ready to speak for him.

A native Texan Mr. Blaylock carries in his nature an appreciation of the best traditions of the Southwest and always there is about him an atmosphere that inspires confidence for leadership and in every emergency dependence may be placed in his courage and judgment.

Mr. Blaylock plans to meet the voters of the county in every section and talk with them regarding his candidacy and while there may be some he will not see he takes this opportunity to solicit their vote and support with the assurance in advance that he will give back in service full payment for the confidence implied by his nomination and re-election. Anything his friends may do for him will be greatly appreciated.

State of Texas or the County he serves and under all conditions, both trying and easy, he has followed the same rule of fidelity and takes more pride in being able to show what his efforts have produced in this way than his successive election to this office for he believes that a public office is a public trust and that those who hold office should always regard its duties as nothing short of one who is employed by the people and to them is due the best that is in him. So believing Mr. Law submits his candidacy for re-election. He has not held the office long and he feels the need for this employment and wants to serve the people who have elected him their collector of taxes.

Auditing firms have uniformly complimented Mr. Law on his system of records and the lawful and proper disposition he has made at all times of public funds and in no instance has he acted other than meeting the full requirements of the law and has in this way given ample protection and security for all public money passing through his office.

Mr. Law desires very much an early response from his duties so that he may visit the various communities of the county and talk with his friends, the people, about his candidacy for re-election. He hopes to see each one but in the event he cannot speak with all he takes this method of sending his solicitation for vote and support of those whom he will not perhaps be able to see. Anything his friends may do will be greatly appreciated with assurances in advance that he will pay back in service the obligation he owes to the people for their support in re-electing him to this office.

His Boom Swells and Grows

Here's his picture, autographed especially for the newspapers of Texas by John N. Garner of Uvalde, the fiery speaker of the U. S. house of representatives. Although he says he doesn't "give a damn" whether he is nominated for president at the Democratic convention, the move to award him this honor is rapidly becoming nation-wide.

PIONEER ORCHESTRA IS FEATURED IN BROADCAST

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS ARE MADE OF MUSIC BY POPULAR LOCAL COMPANY

The Pioneer Orchestra of Cameron in their broadcast Friday night, February 19, covered an unusual wide area. Letters of appreciation came, up to time of writing, from 21 cities in Texas. They are as follows: Angleton, Bartlett, Bryan, Cameron, Corpus Christi, East Bernard, Frydek, Granger, Ganado, Houston, Hallettsville, Jarrell, Navasota, New Braunfels, Sealy, Snook, Schulenburg, San Antonio, Temple, Three Rivers, and Waco. Out of Texas letters came from Moore, Oklahoma; Lincoln, Nebraska; and the far off Blythe, California.

The members of the orchestra felt that the broadcast was successful and appreciate the many nice letters and the interest taken by their friends in Cameron and other places.

Every broadcast of this or any other type helps to boost Cameron.

Fred Jackson made some fine records of the WACO broadcast and also eight records on Monday night, Washington's Birthday. The orchestra made the last recordings at Mr. Jackson's home. Mr. Jackson is an accomplished whistler and aided the orchestra in making some of the records with whistling Monday night.

Program of WACO broadcast included the following: Dawn of the Century March, The Orphan Waltz, Comin' Round the Mountain, A Jolly Social Waltz, At the Mill March, When Irish Eyes are Smiling.

The personnel of the orchestra is Mrs. Wm. Balhorn, piano; L. F. Siana trumpet; Wm. J. Parma, trombone; Fred J. Matula, traps and J. T. Parma, clarinet and director.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams spent the holiday, Monday, in Houston visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Meta McCown has been confined to her bed for a week. She is reported to be some better.

Wiley Preston Jr., is the name Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mangum gave to their young seven pound son who made his arrival Monday, February 15 at the Cameron hospital. Mother and babe are doing nicely and have been removed to their home.

Misses Ruby and Lorena Galler of Buckholts were Cameron shoppers on Monday.

Miss Nancy Rae Slocumb spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Slocumb, returning to Austin in time for school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Williams have returned from a visit with relatives in Houston.

R. B. Rylander Jr., spent a few days in Lubbock with old school friends.

Checker players of this section will be interested in the announcement by Penn Wolf, District Clerk, that he has received a letter from Basil Chase, 22 year old professional from Kansas City who is soon to make a tour of Texas.

Mr. Wolf wants to arrange a tourney for checker players here featuring Mr. Chase who challenges Milam county's best and will play them blindfolded and it is said guarantees to beat them.

Mr. Wolf is a checker player of note, having made a study of the game. He says that some of the best checker players in the country are in Milam county.

Aside from his work as district clerk, Mr. Wolf finds diversion in another way. He is a breeder and exhibitor of Walker hounds and loves the chase. Dogs from the kennels of Mr. Wolf have been distributed over the United States, notably White Stride who was sold to a Kentucky fancier.

It is believed that if Mr. Wolf arranges his checker tourney, it will be necessary to arrange for a large meeting place to accommodate the people. Few realize the extent of interest shown in chess and checkers and without some knowledge of the game little can be known of the skill required in playing a creditable tourney.

Cameron awaits Mr. Wolf's plans with interest. In reality it will be a welcome entertainment and will bring many people to Cameron.

dom that has made for the court a record of efficiency and justice at all times. Reversals on his decisions have been negligible compared with the number of instances in which he has been sustained by the higher courts.

Judge Watson has been most considerate at all times in making excuses for jurors who could not serve and in this as well as other ways has brought about excellent co-operation with his court.

In offering again for this office Judge Watson believes he can render a distinct service and offers his record in office for consideration of the people of this district. He has been a resident for many years and enjoys a wide acquaintance and friendship. The term for which he offers is for four years and will expire again in 1936.

He will make as active campaign as will be permitted from his duties on the bench. He hopes to greet the voters and to speak with them about his candidacy and asks his friends over the district to lend their support and influence and assures them that anything they may do will be greatly appreciated and the obligation will be gratefully discharged in increased devotion to duty.

Butts has made a faithful effort at all times to serve the people of this precinct and while it has always been his policy to look to duty first he hopes to be able to see the voters and talk with them about his candidacy for re-election. He does not believe that public office is merely political to be used for selfish motives but that public office is a place to serve and that every public official is a representative of the people in a place of fixed responsibility and the measure of employment depends upon the holder of that place to make good. In this connection he invites you to look at his record in office, pledging you his best efforts if re-elected. Anything his friends may do will be greatly appreciated.

Misses Lois and Ruby Robbins, twin daughters of Mrs. Katherine Robbins, who are attending school at State University, were week end guests of their mother. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Petty of McCamey, student at State and Miss Elsie Perlitz, who is professor of Germanic language at State University, a sister of Miss Lina Perlitz who formerly taught school in Cameron; and O. Machensen of Austin, who is studying for his Masters Degree at State. Mrs. Robbins accompanied them to Austin Monday afternoon.

Boy Scout News

A very interesting meeting of the Cameron Council of Boy Scouts was held Thursday night, February 16.

The gathering was presided over by John C. Young, Chairman of the District. Those present were John C. Young, A. G. Kunz, C. H. Pollard, W. G. Gillis, F. E. Jackson, O. C. Acree, Roy Weems, B. L. Archer, F. A. Michalka, J. A. Lindle, Max Collins and A. J. Lawrence, Scout Executive.

Mr. Lawrence made a talk on a Civic Service project which is to be launched to all of the troops in the council and which consists of tree planting. Every troop will be asked to plant one or more trees either on some church yard, school ground or park. J. A. Lindle made a very fine talk on what his Scouts are getting out of Scouting. F. E. Jackson gave a good report of the condition of the Scout troops in Cameron and Judge Gillis announced that a Court of Honor would be held on February 26. It was decided to permanently give the plaque to the troop that wins it next time, rather than draw the matter out any further, and it is hoped that a new trophy will be put up. F. E. Jackson has been appointed chairman of the Cub program of the Boy Scouts of America for the Heart of Texas Council by Dr. W. P. Meroney, President of the Council. Mr. Lawrence spoke about the new camp that has been donated to the council and outlined the plans for our summer camping. A. G. Kunz made a report on the annual Heart of Texas Council meeting, touching upon the highlights of the meeting as they impressed him. John Young made a similar report on the annual regional meeting held at Fort Worth recently.

It was voted unanimously to hold the next district meeting in Rockdale on March 15. A special effort is going to be made to get the representatives of the other towns in the district present at this next district meeting.

All who are interested in Scouting are most cordially invited to attend the Court of Honor to be held in the auditorium of Yoe high school on Friday night, February 26 at 7:30 p. m. There will be no charge for admittance.

Those who have been present at former meetings of the Court of Honor know how interesting they are, we do not have to urge them, they will come. If you have never had the pleasure, drop in on this one. You will enjoy a profitable evening and encourage the boys who have made notable advances in Scoutcraft.

Troop 53, J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster

Regular meeting was held Friday night at 7:30 p. m., after attending to routine business and receiving our Court of Honor tickets, we visited Troop 32 of which B. L. Archer is Scoutmaster. The account of the joint meeting is found under notes of Troop 32.

On last Sunday morning at the Baptist Sunday school, Life Scout, John Martin and Eagle Scouts, Billy Gillis, John S. Burns and John C. Haygood, presented a playlet featuring George Washington. So great was their success that they were asked to repeat their performance before the B. Y. P. U. on Sunday night, which they were happy to do.

On Monday night at the Washington's Birthday Celebration at the Masonic Hall these Scouts presented the playlet before San Andres Masonic Lodge, which sponsors Troop 53. The performance was enthusiastically received, and one of the visiting brothers referred to it as "the treat of the evening."

By special request the playlet was presented as the feature at the Geo. Washington celebration at the Ben Arnold school building on Thursday night. These young Thespians are certainly making a name for themselves and bringing honor to their troop.

All friends of Scouting are urged to come to the Court of Honor. There will be something doing.

Troop 32, B. L. Archer, Scoutmaster

Regular meeting was held Friday night at their Scout hall. The joint hike of troops 53 and 32 had to be postponed on account of inclement weather. Tickets were issued to the Scouts with instructions to work hard for the best attendance at the Court of Honor.

Later in the evening Scoutmaster Haygood brought Troop 53 for a visit. A number of contest games were played including number arranging, compass, circle rope, jumping and laughable Mike and Ike. After a thoroughly enjoyable evening the meeting was closed with a prayer led by Scoutmaster Archer.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster

Troop 52 held their regular meeting Friday night February 19, 1932. Despite the fact that the weather was very bad, there was a good attendance. Those present were nine registered Scouts, the Scoutmaster and assistant, the three troop committee-men, four visiting boys, and four adult visitors, making a total of 22. The main feature of the games was a tug of war. A one-inch rope about 50 feet long was used. This contest became so exciting that the adult visitors began to fall in on the losing side, until every one became mixed up in the game. After a ten minute tussle there were plenty of rope burned hands, with neither side getting the best of the other. The address of the evening was a personal health lecture by Dr. A. S. Valente. The meeting wound up with a hot game of smut. It is very interesting to see the way the adult visitors fell into the games and observe the enjoyment they got out of the play time.

Troop 52 urges all their friends to come out and back them up Friday night at the Court of Honor.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor and membership of the Methodist church invite the non-attending citizenship of our community to attend the church services at their church next Sunday. Rev. Luther Waggoner of Georgeown, will preach morning and evening using as subjects for his sermons "No Man Liveth To Himself" at 11 a. m., and "Zachaeus Up the Sycamore Tree" at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Waggoner is a very pleasing and convincing speaker. The pastor invites, urgently, every member of the congregation to be present. The Sunday school meets promptly at 9:45 a. m. and Epworth Leagues at 6:30 p. m.

The Church of God, with all other institutions, has felt the effect of the conditions through which all the world is passing. But let no one be alarmed; it is the one institution of which it is said that "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Let us turn our thought and feet toward the church and help make it a real strong institution in our community and we shall see the beneficent effect in our own private lives as well as our homes and social life.

Two Boys Are Held On Car Theft Charge

Deputy Sheriff Will Vaughan arrested two boys Tuesday morning who gave their names as J. P. Vandever and Albert Tidwell and claimed they lived in Fort Worth.

They were driving a green 1929 model Chevrolet coupe they are said to have stolen from Grady Morris, jeweler of Decatur, Texas.

On their way to Cameron they were charged with taking a milk can and breaking into a filling station, filling their car and milk can with gas.

The Cameron officer was first attracted by the boys trying to sell Ford tires with wheels, and upon examining the car found mail addressed to Grady Morris of Decatur. The boys confessed taking the car and are now in the Cameron jail. It is reported that the grand jury at Decatur is investigating the matter.

FORTY-TWO CLUB

One of the prettiest patriotic parties on the social calendar last week was when Mrs. Huson Aoles entertained the Forty-Two Club at her home on North Houston Street.

A handsome hand-painted picture of George Washington over-draped with crossed flags was a pleasing feature of the decorations. White narcissus and other spring flowers were noted at pleasing points.

Five tables of games were laid with covers in the chosen theme, centered with a cherry tree stump decorated with the cherry fruit, bearing a miniature hatchet. Tally pads, score cards and pencils aided in carrying out the chosen theme.

Merry games were enjoyed until a late hour when the hostess removed game covers and laid the tables with patriotic covers with napery to match and served an ice in the design of a bust of George Washington, with individual cakes embossed with red cherries. Red, white and blue mints were passed. Plate favors were pins with pictures of "The Father of Our Country."

The hostess was assisted in the hospitalities of the afternoon by Mrs. J. Z. Young, Mrs. Dr. Brooks and Mrs. Bennett.

Guests other than club members present were Mesdames Bob Terry, Conn Miller, Lloyd Mitchell, O. B. Horstmann, Niley Smith, Bob Bennett, J. Z. Brook and Dr. Brook.

FRIENDLY BIBLE CLASS

Mrs. W. B. Levy was a delightful hostess to the Friendly Bible Class on Friday afternoon at her home. A George Washington theme was in evidence in all the appointments. Red and white spring blossoms were arranged throughout the house.

A George Washington program was rendered during the hours:

A paper was given by Mrs. Walter Sharp.

Reading, Mrs. E. C. Cole.

Song, Mrs. Alex Triggs.

Reading, Miss Norma Jean McAlwrath.

Delicious cherry pie topped with whipped cream was served at the close of the afternoon.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Early Spring flowers, featuring the narcissus and violets, were used to advantage in the decorations of the rooms when Mrs. Dan Tyson entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club this week.

Three tables were attractively arranged where the accessories further enhanced the chosen motif. A number of enjoyable games closed and table cuts went to Mrs. Vernon McIntyre and Mrs. Giles Avriett, pretty growing plants in decorated pots.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Conn Miller in serving an appetizing salad course on green trays that were graced with pretty bowls of sweet elysium and spring violets.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Vernon McIntyre of Alpine and Mrs. Geo. Waller of Dallas.

MONDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

The Monday Night Bridge Club enjoyed a George Washington party in the home of Miss Grace Epim Monday evening. Red japonica, white narcissus and red begonia lent charm to the rooms given over to the games.

Tally cards were miniature hatchets in the prevailing color theme and pads and pencils added color to the tables. A number of games were enjoyed and at the close high trophy went to Mrs. Bert Miller, a colonial silhouette picture. Mrs. Lee McLane was consoled with a double deck of bridge cards.

The hostess served a dainty collation on trays centered with red, white and blue boxes forming a square where a miniature George Washington stood in center and were given as table favors and went to Mrs. Lee McLane, Mrs. Gaston Barnore and Miss Dallis Young.

Guests beside club members were Mrs. Albert Collins, Mrs. Gaston Barnore, Mrs. Hilton Culpepper, Mrs. Lee McLane, Misses Nadine Bragg and Dallis Young.

4 Legged Hen; Rooster Walking Like Chaplin, Poultry Yard Freaks

A hen with four legs and a rooster that stands straight up and walks like Charlie Chaplin may be seen in the poultry yard at the Carson Harris grocery in Cameron.

These freaks of the poultry world have created a lot of interest. Often one reads of a three legged chicken but seldom if ever a four legged fowl. The hen is a white leghorn and a healthy bird, the two extra legs growing from the left side, giving one the impression that she might walk on her back if she chooses.

The rooster, named Charlie Chaplin, is no less an interesting study. Like a clown he surveys the yard and walks about with a wobble that mimics the great comedian, reminding one of a big fat duck ambling about.
